By Charles Colson

Good News Publishers, 2010. Pamphlet. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. SET FREE! It s a stifling hot August night in Georgia. Over 700 inmates and 50 community workers have gathered in the auditorium of the Atlanta penitentiary. Chuck Colson, who has come to speak to the prisoners, looks over the restless crowd--half white, half black--and begins speaking. ----- A lot of you think of Christians as those nice, white, middle-class people who go to church on Sunday and never get into trouble. And you say, No, that s not for me. I don t want any part of that. They can afford to be nice. They don t know what it is to be hungry. They don t know what it is to see their children starving. They don t know what it is to be in prison. And you re right--most of them don t. Let me tell you a little about the man Jesus Christ, because he did know about these things and He cared. Jesus was God and he was man. And when he was nailed to that cross, he hurt. He suffered there for every one of us. Let me tell you what...
